

Part 3

/ t / bent eat mart

/ tʃ /

bench each march

/ t /

/ tʃ /

SENTENCES

1. She talks while holding the chalk.
2. He bent his legs on the bench.
3. They eat each of the cookies.

Part 3

/ d / code mud rid / tʃ /

coach much rich

/ d /

/ tʃ /

SENTENCES

1. They fetch water and fed the cows.
2. There are much mud on the floor.
3. She gets rid of rich people.

Part 3

/ s /

mass
peace sat

/ tʃ /

match peach
chat

/s/

/tʃ/

SENTENCES

1. They sat on the chair to chat.
2. Every time Evelyn has a stress she chooses to stretch her arm.
3. They can't cheat because they're seats are apart.

Part 3

/ z / has is was / tʃ /

hatch itch watch

/ z /

/ tʃ /

zoo

chip teach zip stars

couch

cows

chew

tease

starch

SENTENCES

1. They teach me how to tease them.
2. She forms stars out of the starch.
3. Mariah sip a juice while eating chip.

Part 3

/ʃ/bash mash share

/tʃ/batch match

chair

/ʃ/

/tʃ/

shop wash

which chips

shoe

wish chop

chew

watch ships

SENTENCES

1. John and Steph share a chair.
2. The meat shop owner chop the meat I bought.
3. They wash the dishes when suddenly the watch fell to the ground.

Part 3

/ tʃ /

batch search chunk

/ dʒ /

judge serge junk

/ tʃ /

/ dʒ /

SENTENCES

1. A chunk of meat junk by her mother because the smell is not good.
2. He is rich and owns a 500 hectare ridge.
3. I search the serge which mother bought this morning.

Part 3

/ s / cell bass dress

/ dʒ /

gel badge dredge

/ s /

/ dʒ /

1. As Carol pace on the street she noticed a page of a book.
2. Most of my friends are single; every time we meet we do the jingle.
3. Our team won the sack race but the other team rage themselves that they're supposed to win the game.

Part 3

/ z / arraigns pays doses

/ dʒ /

arrange page dosage

/ z /

/ dʒ /

says uses twins zest fairs forge usage sedge jest twinge

SENTENCES

1. Karen uses the microphone while instructing the correct usage of their new product.
2. I feel zest today because I won the contest but for Coleen I didn't mean to jest her that made her angry.
3. She says that sedge grows in wet grounds.

Part 3

/ ð /

them father tho

/ dʒ /

gem larger Jo

/ ð /

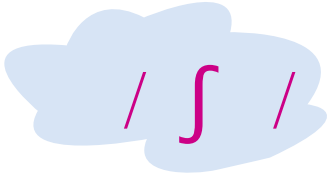

/ dʒ /

SENTENCES

1. She bought a gem for them.
2. My father brought a larger cake.
3. His wearing a leather jacket while submitting the ledger to his boss.

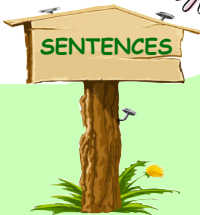

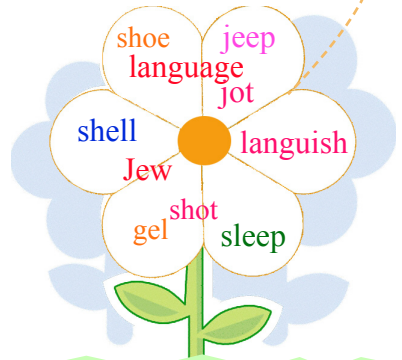

Part 3

shack
shade ravish

jack jade ravage

1. Jack lives in a shack.
2. The Jew does not have one shoe.
3. Joey is wearing a showy ensemble.