

Unit 2 Lesson 5 - It's going to rain soon.

Circle the correct word order to complete each sentence.

1. Yvonne amazes me. She (often smiles, smiles often). She (always seems, seems always) so happy.
2. I (am often, often am) alone after school, while they (always meet up, meet up always) to study together.
3. She (usually says, says usually) something wrong about anyone. She (often gossips, gossips often.)
4. Her answers (usually are, are usually) right. She is good at English. She (always shares, shares always) her English books with classmates.

Learn today's targets.

Grammar Focus

- be going to
- It's time to ...

Key Expressions

- I'm going to hang out with my friends.
- It's going to rain soon.

Listen to the teacher and repeat.

holiday

president

Listen to the audio and repeat.

Mom: Bo, it's time to go to school.

Bo: What time is it, Mom?

Mom: It's half past eight. Hurry up or you'll be late.

Bo: But today is a holiday. It's President's day.

Mom: Oh, you are right. So, what are you going to do today?

Bo: I'm going to hang out with my friends.

Mom: Are you going to ride your new motorcycle?

Bo: Yes, Mom.

Mom: It's going to rain soon. Take a bus or a taxi. And don't forget the umbrella.

Bo: Thanks, Mom.

Learn the uses.

be going to

Intentions

a plan or a willing

We're not going to paint the door.

Jo has won the lottery.

He's going to buy a Porsche.

Predictions

Something will happen soon.

The sky looks dark. It's going to snow again soon.

Look out! He's going to break that glass.

Identify the uses of “be going to”.

Prediction

or

Intention

1. I am going to eat more fruits and vegetables.
2. 2020 is going to be a tough year.
3. Maggie and Ginger are going to the vet at 8:30 a.m..
4. He is going to study veterinary medicine at the university.
5. The building is going to be finished by this month.
6. We are going to redecorate the living room next week.

Learn, read and say.

It's time to ...

It's time (for somebody)
+ to do something

- It's time to do my homework.
- It's time for you to work.
- It's time to do some shopping.

It's time to ...

It's time to ...

It's time to ...

You and your friend are in a coffee bar. The weather outside doesn't look good. You are worried because you left the windows open. So, you intend to go home.

- be going to
- It's time to ...

Read what we learned today.

- Word Focus

- holiday

- president

- Grammar Focus

- be going to
- It's time to ...