

Unit 3 Lesson 6 - We will probably go there on July 12th.

Write 'will' or 'won't' and choose a verb on the right to complete the sentence.

1. I  to the office on foot. It is raining so heavily.
2. My friends  the concert this weekend. It has free admission.
3. The weather  probably  sunny tomorrow because the sky is dark.
4. I  by cash. I don't have any.
5.  you  for me on my birthday, please?

sing

be

go

pay

attend

Introduce today's sentences.

Grammar Focus

- Wh- + will + subject + base form of the verb ...?
- Subject + might + base form of the verb ...
- probably & possibly & definitely & certainly

Key Expressions

- Where will you go?
- We might go on a vacation to the Philippines.
- We will probably go there on July 12th.

Listen to the teacher and repeat.

go on a vacation

swimwear

dive

sunscreen lotion

Listen to the audio and repeat.

Aya: I am so excited about our long holiday.

Bo: Me too! Where will you go?

Aya: We might go on a vacation to the Philippines.

Bo: There are a lot of beautiful beaches.

And you can go diving there.

Aya: Yes, and we will probably go there on July 12th.

Bo: Don't forget your swimwear and sunscreen lotion.

Aya: Sure. And I will certainly buy you some souvenirs.

Bo: Wow. I can't wait! Enjoy your time, Aya.

Learn the grammar structures.

“Wh- + will + subject + base form of the verb ...?”

---

Where will you go on your next vacation?

What will you do there?

When will you go there?

How will you spend your holidays?

Modal Verb: “Might”

---

A modal verb expressing 50% probability.

Subject + might + base form of the verb....

I might go to the Philippines on my next vacation?

I might try scuba diving.

I might go there in summer.

I might visit my relatives in the countryside.

Learn the grammar structures.

“Adverbs of Certainty”

used to make the predictions stronger or weaker

probably

possibly

definitely

certainly

In affirmative sentences, the adverb comes after will.

They will definitely win the championship.

She will certainly like my present.

In negative sentences, the adverb comes before won't.

They probably won't do well in the championship.

She possibly won't like my present.

Can you give some examples of adverbs of certainty?

Answer the questions about you. Use 'might' in your answers.

1. What will you do on the weekend?

2. Where will you live in ten years?

3. When will you be available for a meeting?

4. How much money will you need to start a business?

5. Who will you vote for in the next presidential election?

Rewrite the sentences if there is any error. Put a check mark if there is none.

For example:

She will like probably my present.

She will probably like my present.

1. The students possibly will top this year's examination.
2. She might visit her relatives abroad next year.
3. When Beijing will host the Olympics?
4. We will take the bus to the North yesterday.
5. The next Olympics will be in London.

Situation: Your friend suggested holding a surprise birthday party for your other friend. Ask her questions about the plan.

- Wh- + will + subject + base form of the verb ...?
- Subject + might + base form of the verb ...
- probably & possibly & definitely & certainly

Read what we learned today.

Word Focus

- go on a vacation
- swimwear
- dive
- sunscreen lotion

Grammar Focus

- ■ Wh- + will + subject + base form of the verb ...?
- ■ Subject + might + base form of the verb ...
- ■ probably & possibly & definitely & certainly