

Unit 2 Lesson 1 – I work carefully to help clients establish their design needs.

Introduce today's sentences.

Grammar Focus

- Types of Adverbs
- Adverbs can Modify: Verbs, Adjectives, other Adverbs

Key Expressions

- It's very exciting and tiring at the same time.
- I work carefully to help clients establish their design needs.

Listen to the teacher and repeat.

to no avail

fortunately establish flyer

signage

logo

Listen to the audio and repeat.

Aya: So Jerrica, how's everything going?

Jerrica: I applied for several companies last month but to no avail. I'm slowly losing hope. How about you?

Aya: I am fortunately enjoying my graphic designing job at my company here in Tokyo.

Jerrica: Wow, that's absolutely amazing. What is it like being a graphic designer?

Aya: Honestly, it's very exciting and tiring at the same time.

Jerrica: When were you hired?

Aya: Well, I was hired a month ago.

Jerrica: What do you actually do at work?

Aya: At the moment, I work carefully to help clients establish their design needs for their businesses. I design magazines, advertisements, flyers, and even signages. I also create logos and branding materials for big businesses.

Jerrica: That's wonderful. I'm so proud of you.

Learn the types of Adverbs.

Adverbs

- answer the questions when, where, how, how much, how often

Time

When?

now soon after today since early

She will be absent tomorrow.

Place

Where?

far near away here there
above

His workplace is near his house.

Manner

How?

hard fast gently easily calmly closely

They gently opened the door.

Degree

How much?

so lots very little much too

It's very exciting and tiring.

Frequency

How often?

once often never daily rarely seldom

He seldom drinks beer.

Learn what adverbs modify.

Adverbs

- can modify a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

● modify a verb

● modify an adjective

● modify another adverb

I work carefully.

verb adverb

I'm an extremely quick worker.

adverb adjective

I work very quickly.

adverb adverb

Sort the adverbs according to the question they answer.

very never above

before extremely hard

now always below

fast often far clearly since little

WHEN?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

WHERE?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

HOW?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

HOW MUCH?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

HOW OFTEN?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Arrange the words to form a sentence.

Circle the adverb(s) used in the sentence and draw an arrow to the word it modifies.

1. / he / to / rarely / the / hairdresser's / goes / . /

2. / usually / she / at / meal / her / 8 o'clock / eats / . /

3. / I'm / to / meet / going / tomorrow / my / friends / . /

4. / he / nearby / town / works / in / a / bank / . /

5. / tired / they / after / extremely / are / game / the / . /

6. / she / fell / asleep / she / as / watching / was / TV / slowly / . /

He  goes to the hairdresser's.

Spin the wheel and do the task in each number.

HINTS

Adverb of Time

Adverb of Degree

Adverb of Place

Adverb of Manner

Adverb of Frequency

Situation: You wish to apply to a company where your friend is working. Your friend has offered to help you practice for the job interview. Pretend that your friend is an HR manager by answering her questions. Talk about your skills, educational background, and job experiences. Use the grammar you have learned today. (Adverbs- Manner, Time, Place, Degree, Frequency)

Word Focus

to no avail
flyer

fortunately signage

establish logo

Grammar Focus

- Types of Adverbs
- Adverbs can Modify: Verbs, Adjectives, other Adverbs