

Unit 4 Lesson 1 – We will have finished it by next month.

Introduce today's sentences.

Grammar Focus

- Future Perfect Tense

Key Expressions

- We will have finished it by next month.
- We won't have set up the website in two weeks.

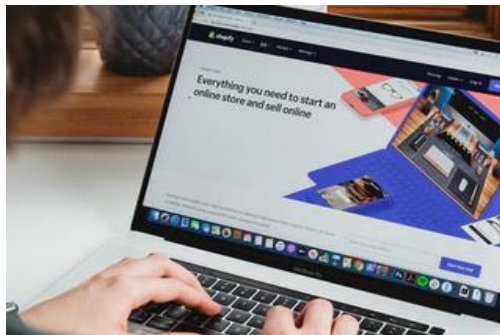

Listen to the teacher and repeat.

declining

prevalent

online content

agency

attract

Listen to the audio and repeat.

Mr. Tanaka: Last month's sales had been declining. We must set better goals and strategies to reach our quarterly sales target. Do you have something in mind?

Bo: We could improve our social media marketing and website since online shopping is more prevalent nowadays.

Mr. Tanaka: I thought of that too. How you think it will work?

Bo: We can start working on our online content and website design. We can contact an advertising agency to help us. I think a well-made website can attract many customers, even from other countries.

Mr. Tanaka: Do you think we will have finished it by next month?

Bo: We won't have set up the website in two weeks.
If everything goes well, I will have it completed by this month. I'll make sure to find a reliable advertising agency.

Mr. Tanaka: That's a good idea. That way more customers will take notice of our products and visit the website more frequently.

Bo: Yes, I hope we can reach our sales target this quarter. I will inform Miku about this.

Learn the grammar structures.

Future Perfect Tense

Used to express something that will be finished before a particular time in the future.

- + will have + past participle
He will have done the report by this evening.
- will + subject + have + past participle
Will he have done the report by this evening?
- ? will not + have + past participle
He won't have done the report by this evening.

Other examples:

We will have moved to our new home by next week.

She won't have finished the task by next month.

Will she have worked at this company by 2026?

by + time

- by + time
- something happened before a specific time in the future.

By next week, we will have set some new strategies.

Learn the usage of the Future Perfect Tense.

Future Perfect Tense

Usage 1

To express an action, which will have been finished before a particular time in the future.

Examples:

By 4 o'clock, I will have finished my work.

She will have gone to the market by 7 o'clock.

Usage 2

To express an action, which will be finished before another action in the future.

Examples:

She will have cooked dinner by the time we arrive.

I will have finished eating dinner by the time she calls.

Usage 3

To express an action, which began before and will continue up until another action in the future.

Examples:

By next week, we will have been married for 20 years.

By tomorrow, I will have worked in this company for 5 years.

Supply the correct form of the verbs between the brackets. Use the future perfect tense.

1. By the end of the year, I _____ (save) 1 million dollars.
2. She _____ (not finish) all her homework for a week.
3. By this week I _____ (revise) all my marketing presentations.
4. When she gets to the airport, they _____ (arrive).
5. They _____ (not ; go) home by 6 o'clock.
6. By this time next year, they _____ (build) a new outlet shop in our city.

Convert the following sentences according to the given form.

1. I will have finished my report by dinner time. → (negative)

2. Will she have fallen asleep by the time we get home? → (positive)

3. They won't have completed the task in two weeks' time. → (question)

4. The plane will have taken off by two hours. → (question)

5. Will the concert have started by 20 minutes? → (positive)

6. They will have sent the email by tomorrow. → (negative)

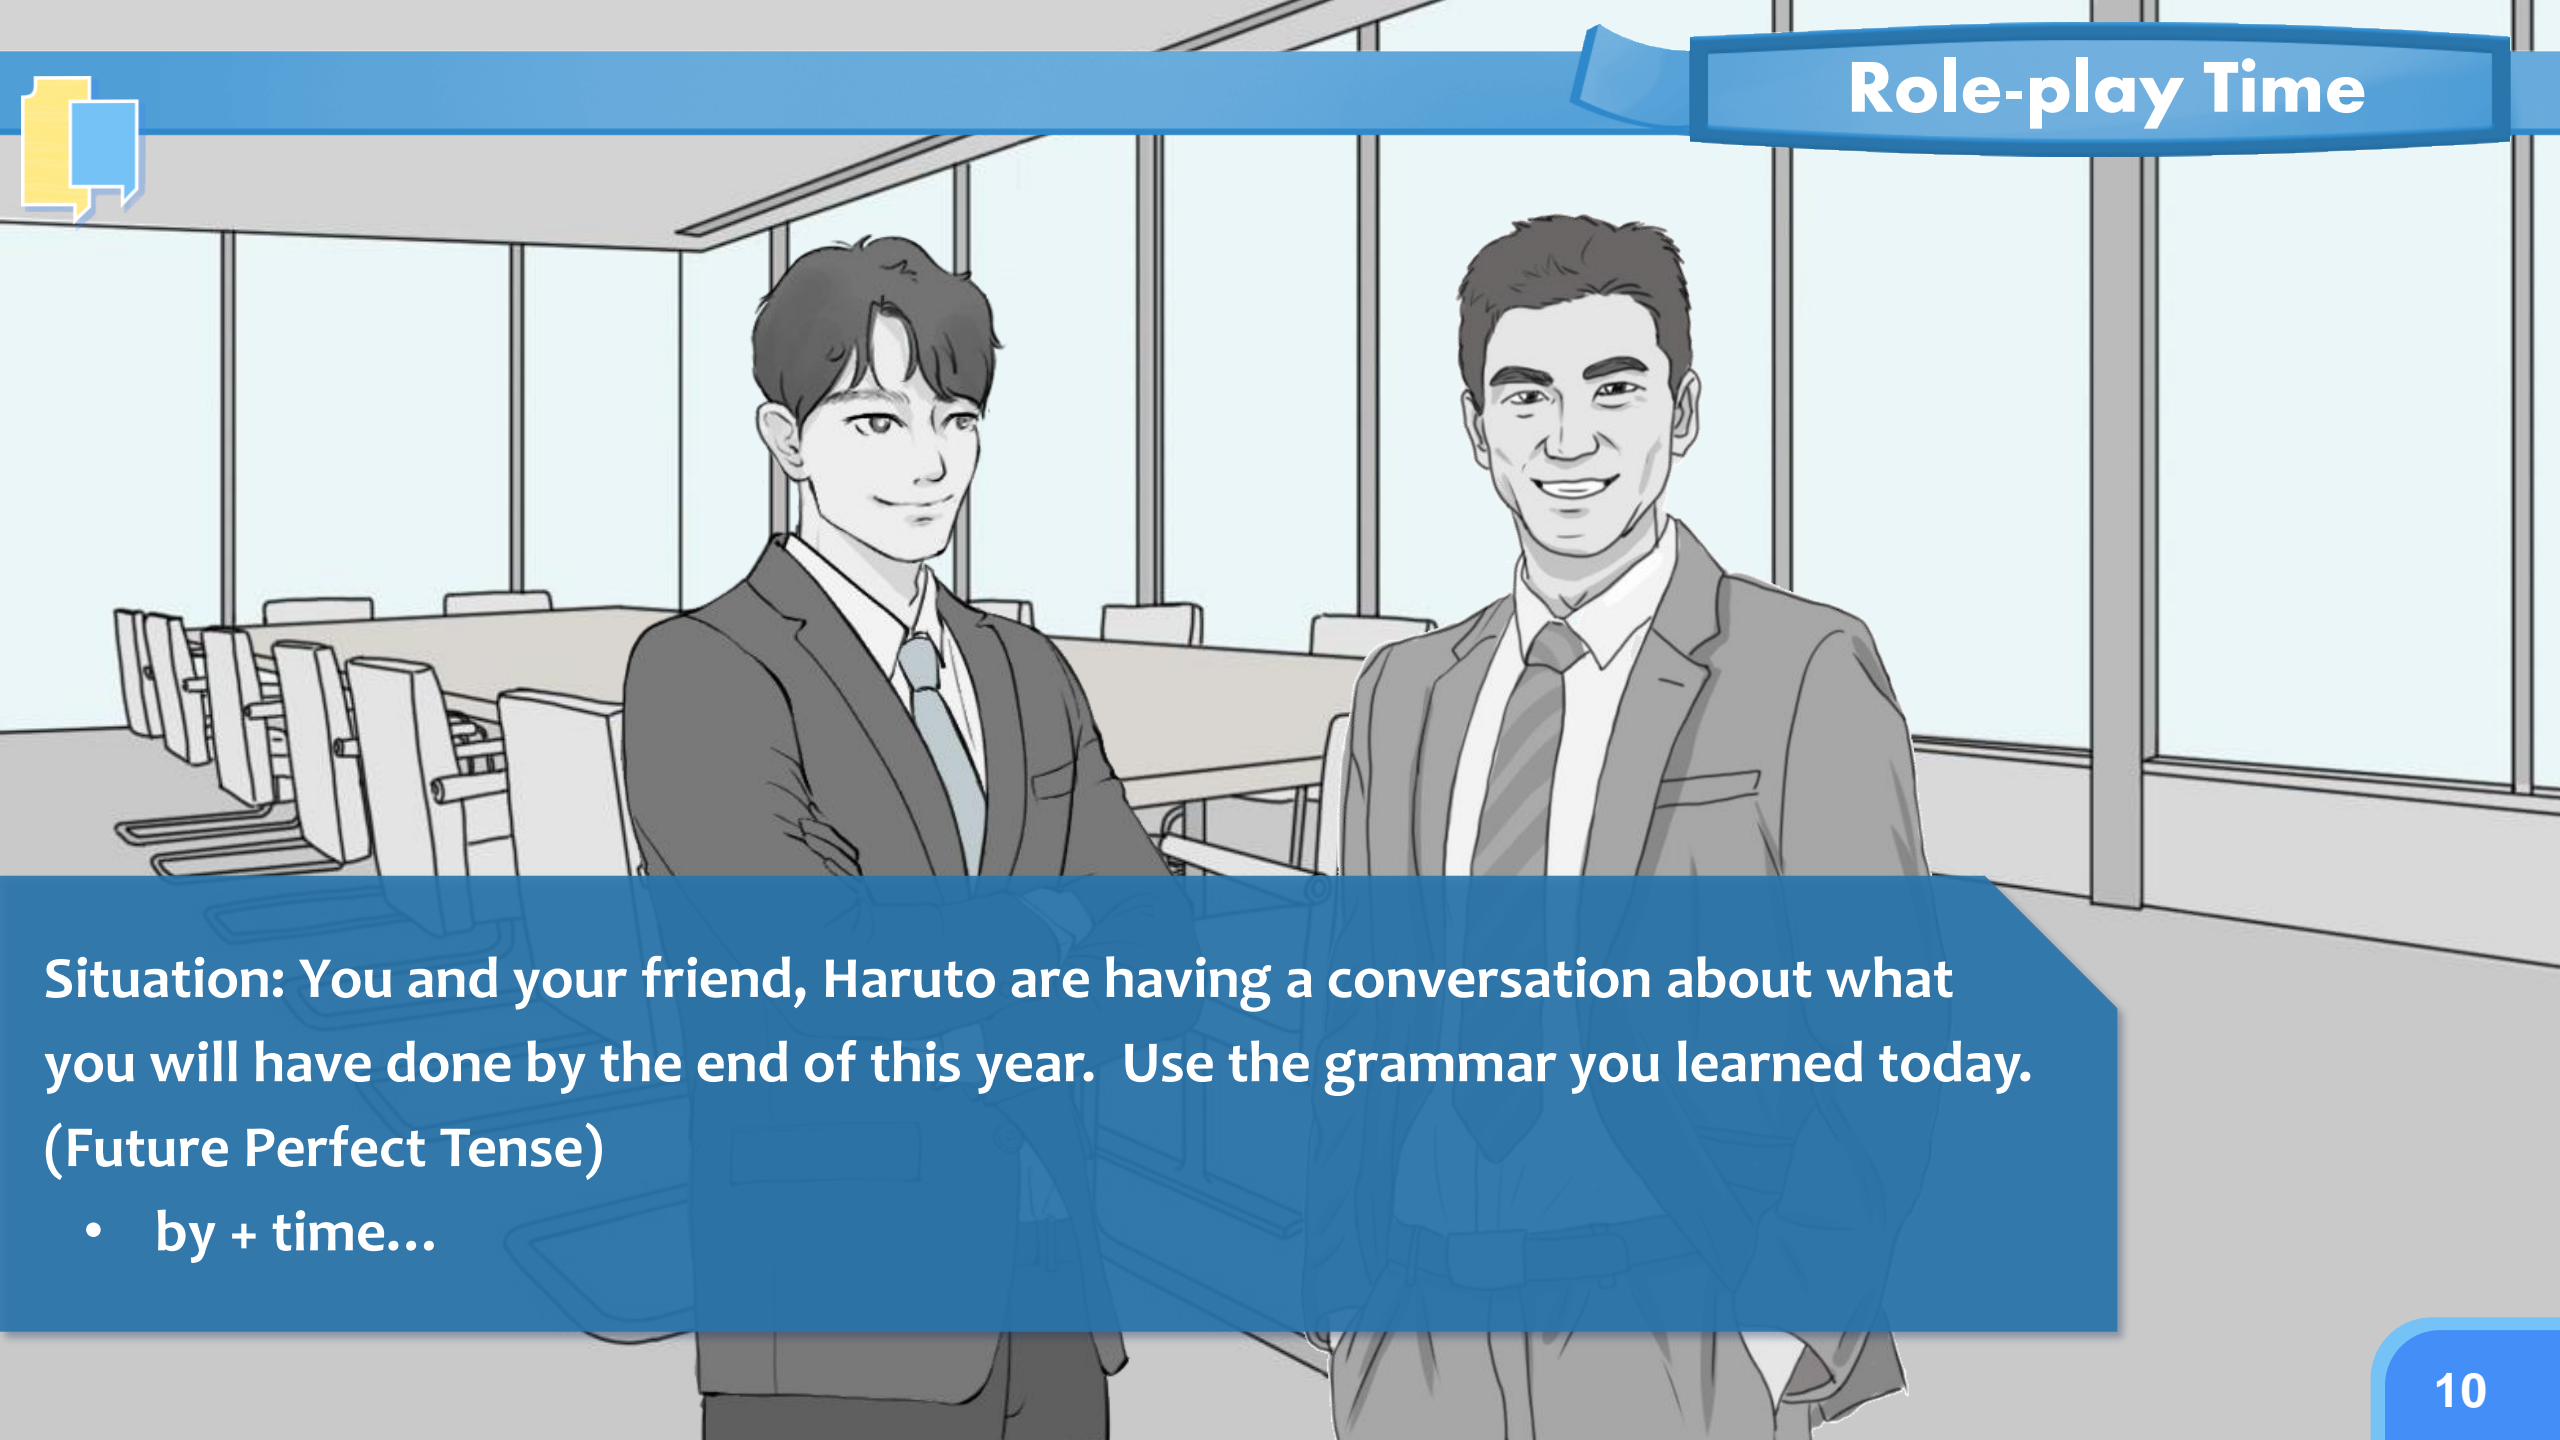

Answer the following question cards using the future perfect tense.

Will you have spoken English fluently by the end of next year?

Will books have disappeared by 2050?

What will you have bought by the end of this week?

What new technologies will have appeared by 2030?

Situation: You and your friend, Haruto are having a conversation about what you will have done by the end of this year. Use the grammar you learned today.

(Future Perfect Tense)

- by + time...

Word Focus

declining

prevalent

agency

online content

attract

Grammar Focus

- Future Perfect Tense

