

DAILY ENGLISH

Book 3

E2 - You should take medicine.

A male doctor with a beard, wearing a white lab coat over a blue and white striped shirt, is looking down at a tablet computer. A female patient with long brown hair is seen from behind, holding the tablet. They are in a modern, brightly lit clinic with medical equipment and a potted plant in the background.

Lead-in

1. How often do you visit a doctor?
2. What should you do to keep your body healthy?

Target Language

▼ In this lesson, we will learn:

Grammar Focus

You should take + noun

Daily Expression

You should take medicine.
You should take some vitamins.

Picture Description

▼ Please describe each picture.

A

B

C

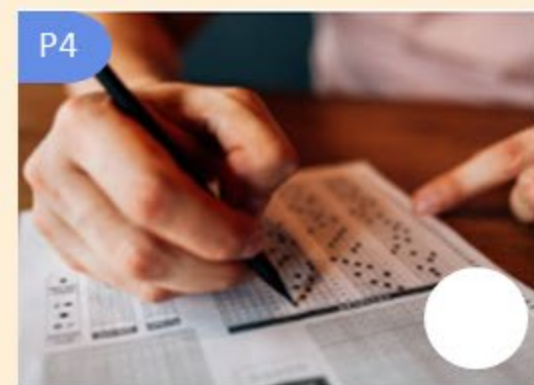

D

Pronunciation and Matching

▼ Read the example sentences.

1. You should take medicine.
2. You should take some vitamins.
3. You should take the entrance test.
4. You should take the doctor's advice.

▼ Match the sentences with the corresponding pictures.

Conversation

▼ Listen to the conversation.

Kannta: Hi, Serena.

Serena: You look pale today.

Kannta: I still have a headache.

Serena: You should take medicine.

Kannta: I already did. But I still feel dizzy.

Serena: You should get some rest.

Questions:

- Why does Kannta look pale?
- How does he feel after taking medicine?
- What does Serena recommend Kannta to do?

Grammar Focus

▼ Read the grammar structure.

You should take + noun

You/I

He/She + should take

We/They

medicine.

some vitamins.

the entrance test.

the doctor's advice.

Grammar Check

▼ What does the word 'take' in each sentence mean?

1. She should take the bus to work.
a. drive b. stop c. ride
2. He should take the job offer from that company.
a. accept b. make c. apply
3. I should take the entrance exam to enter the university.
a. fail b. undergo c. pass
4. We should take our parents' advice.
a. forget b. return c. follow
5. They should take their time going home.
a. not attend b. not hurry c. not delay

Grammar Check

Choose the correct sentence that best describes each picture.

- A. You should take a car.
- B. You should take a taxi.

- A. You should take a class.
- B. You should take a vacation.

- A. He should take a soap.
- B. He should take a shower.

- A. You should take a map.
- B. You should take a nap.

Daily Scene

Give some appropriate recommendations to the following people.

I need to arrive in my office quickly.

I'm always hungry early in the morning.

We want to graduate from the university.

We want memorabilia of our trip.
