Daily Scene

Read the situations, then create a title using the learned expression.

Use number 1 as an example.

I'm in trouble.

You broke your mom's favorite flower vase.

You failed to pass an important exam even though you studied hard.

You owe money from a friend but you don't have money to pay him back.

You felt like you are liking the person you just met yesterday and you want to see that person again.

You just found out that your friend is a painter. He paints so well and has already sold some of his paintings.

You have made up your mind. You chose work over study but you were not sure about your decision.
