

DAILY ENGLISH

E2 - The thief stole the car that I rented.

Lead-in

1. Is there very much crime in the town/city where you live?
2. Have you had anything stolen from you in your town/city? If yes, what?

Target Language

▼ In this lesson, we will learn:

Grammar Focus

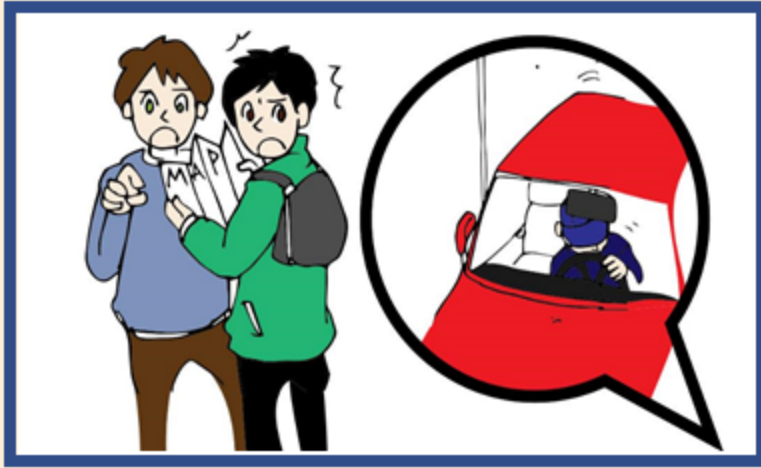

Relative Clause Modifying the Object of the Verb

Daily Expression

The thief stole the car that I rented.

Picture Description

▼ Please describe each picture.

A

B

Pronunciation and Matching

▼ Read the example sentences.

1. The thief stole the car that I rented.
2. I informed a policeman who was very strict.

▼ Match the sentences with the corresponding pictures.

Conversation

▼ Listen to the conversation.

A: Hey John! You look sad. Are you okay?

B: No, I'm not. The thief stole the car that I rented.

A: Oh really? Did you inform the police?

B: Yes, I did. I informed a policeman who was very strict. He made me feel even more worried.

Questions:

- Why does John look sad?
- Who did he inform about the incident?
- What did he feel when he informed a policeman?

Grammar Focus

▼ Read the grammar structure.

Relative Clause Modifying the Object of the Verb

The thief stole the car that I rented.

Grammar Check

- ▼ Underline the relative clause and circle the noun it modifies in each given sentence.

1. I like the bike that my father gave me.

2. He likes the chocolate which I bought.

3. We went to the place which Lucy recommended.

4. John met a woman who I had been to school with.

5. The police arrested a man who Jill worked with.

Grammar Check

▼ Add the phrase in brackets to the sentence using a relative clause 'that'.

We called a doctor (the doctor works at a hospital in London).

They like the actor (the actor was in a famous film).

I often buy cheese (the cheese is imported from Paris).

He fixed the car (the car broke down) in the garage.

She bought a car (her sister liked the car).

Daily Scene

Scenario: It was Anne's birthday last Monday.

Using the picture clues, describe what she did that day.

