Partnerships for The Goals

The United Nations Global Goals for Sustainable Development aims to improve the quality of life for all people around the world, including the environment we live in. Through their unique platform, branches of the organization focus on taking action on the issues confronting humanity in the 21st century. The key element in achieving all 17 Sustainable Development Goals is the cooperation and effort of all global citizens.

We can work together to start achieving the Global Goals by doing the following things:

Reading

- Contacting local and national charities to find out how we can contribute.
- Finding ways to protect our environment around the home, at school, and in the local community, e.g. recycling programs, community gardens, etc.
- Participating in clean–up campaigns, such as cleaning garbage from a beach, park, etc.
- Writing to councils, local governments, etc., to request small improvements and changes.

We are all in this together. The Agenda, with its 17 goals, is universal and calls for action by all countries, both developed countries and developing countries, to ensure no one is left behind.
