

Lesson 16

Is There a Fruit Stand?

Answer the questions.

Review

Are there ... in the fridge?

Listen to the dialogue.

Dialogue

Bo: That is a market.
There are some stands.

Aya: Is there a fruit stand?

Bo: Yes, there is.

Aya: Are there apples?

Bo: Yes, there are.
There are apples and bananas.

Listen, repeat and learn.

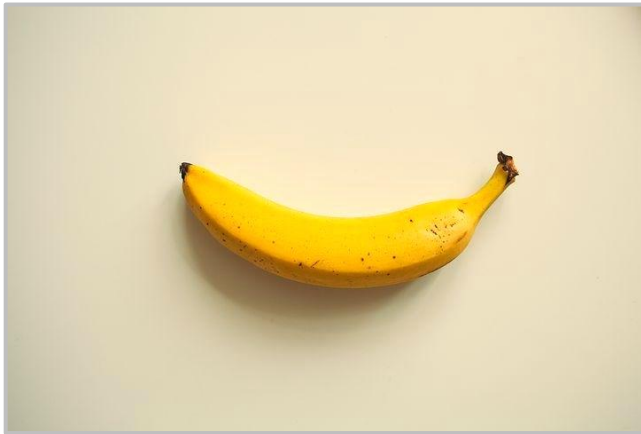

Words

market

stand

banana

apple

Do a role-play.

Dialogue

Bo: That is a market.
There are some stands.

Aya: Is there a fruit stand?

Bo: Yes, there is.

Aya: Are there apples?

Bo: Yes, there are.
There are apples and bananas.

1. What did Aya and Bo see?

A. a school

B. a market

2. What is in the market?

A. There are some stands.

B. There are some stations.

3. What fruits are there in the fruit stand?

A. apples and bananas

B. grapes and cherries

some + plural

some bags

some potatoes

some books

some peaches

some bottles

some toys

1.

some bowls

3.

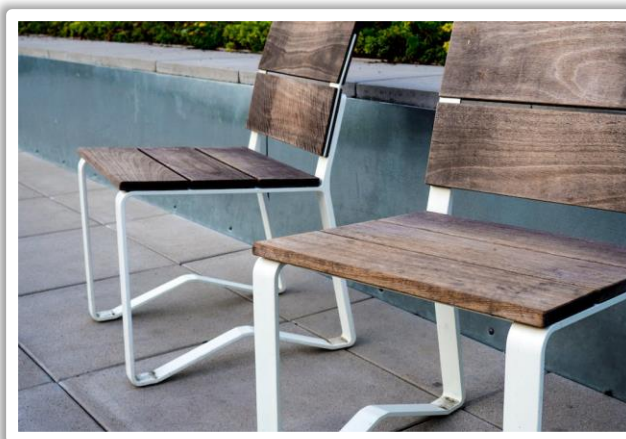

some _____

2.

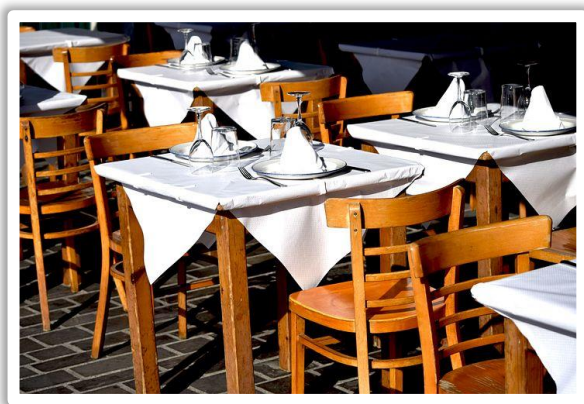

some _____

4.

and

tables and chairs

apples, grapes, and bananas

pencils and erasers

Match the pictures and words.

Check

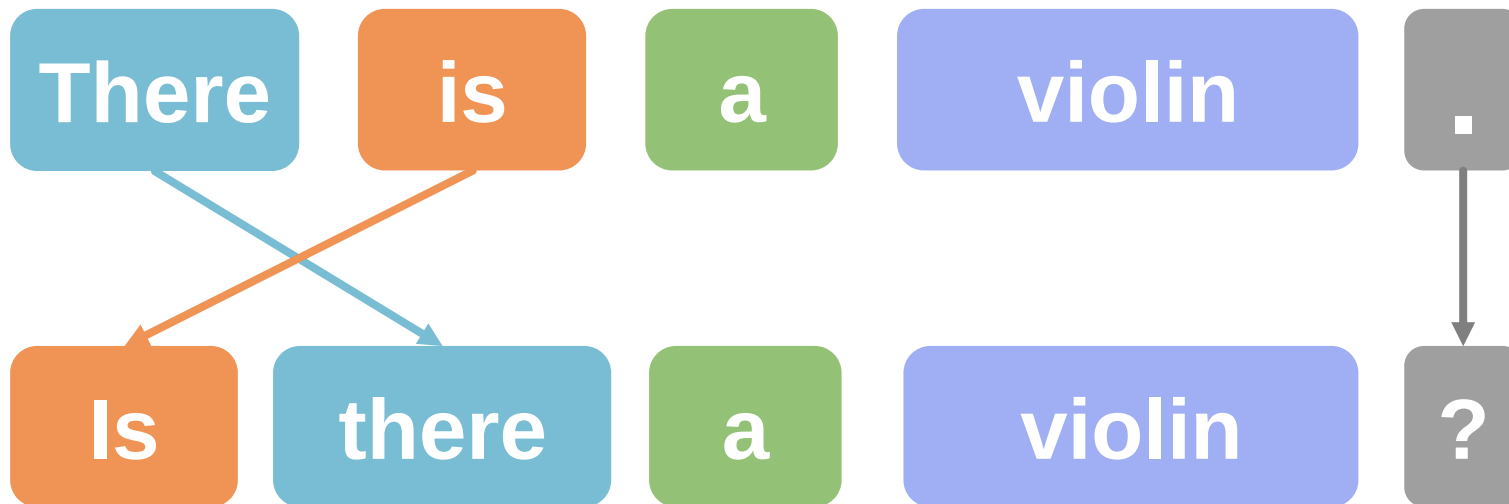

spoons, forks and knives

dogs and cats

socks and shoes

There is a/an ... → Is there a/an ...?

1

There is a table.

2

Is there an egg?

3

There is a hat.

Is there an onion?

Yes, there is.

Is there a tomato?

No, there isn't.

Answer the questions.

Check

Is there alan ...?

mango

pineapple

apple

watermelon

Fill in the blanks, and do a role-play.

Role-Play

That is a clothes shop.

Yes, _____ are.

Yes, there _____.

Are there
_____ shoes?

_____ a jacket?

That's great!

You and your friend are near a clothes shop.