

Fill in the blanks.

Review

1

_____ is _____ a bike.

2

He _____ listening _____ music.

3

_____ he washing _____ face?

Listen to the dialogue.

Dialogue

Mrs. Sato: What is your sister doing, Bo?

Bo: She is doing her homework.

Mrs. Sato: What is your dad doing?

Bo: He is doing the laundry.

Mrs. Sato: What are you doing?

Bo: I'm doing the dishes.

Mrs. Sato: Thank you, dear.

Listen, repeat and learn.

Words

sister

dad

homework

laundry

dish

Mrs. Sato: What is your sister doing, Bo?

Bo: She is doing her homework.

Mrs. Sato: What is your dad doing?

Bo: He is doing the laundry.

Mrs. Sato: What are you doing?

Bo: I'm doing the dishes.

Mrs. Sato: Thank you, dear.

1. What is Bo doing?

A. doing his homework

B. doing the dishes

2. What is Bo's sister doing?

A. doing her homework

B. doing the laundry

3. What is Bo's dad doing?

A. doing the dishes

B. doing the laundry

she

We use “she” when we talk about a woman or a girl.

She is reading
a book.

She is eating watermelon.

her

We use “her” to say that something belongs to a woman or a girl.

She is cleaning
her car.

She is combing her hair.

Listen, repeat and learn.

Pattern

do + the/one's + noun

do the laundry

do the dishes

do one's homework

do + noun

do taekwondo

do yoga

do exercise

be + doing + sth.

be-verbs (am/ is/ are)

I am doing the dishes.

She is doing her homework.

They are doing the laundry.

Answer the questions using do.

Check

What are you doing?

What is he doing?

What are they doing?

Answer the questions using do.

Check

What are you doing?

What is she doing?

What is he doing?

Fill in the blanks, and do a role-play.

Role-Play

What _____ you doing?

I'm _____ the dishes.

How about _____ sister?

_____ is doing _____ hair.

_____ is your dad doing?

He is doing _____ laundry.

It's Sunday and all your family members are at home.