

WRITE SOURCE

Descriptive Writing

LESSON 13

Descriptive Start-Up

2

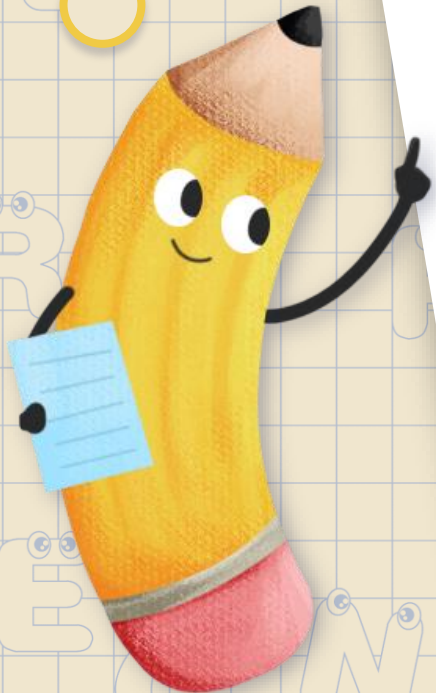

Today we'll learn ...

1

what descriptive writing is.

2

how to start
descriptive writing.

Lead-in

Guess what it is!

It is yellow and round.

Be careful!
It tastes super sour!

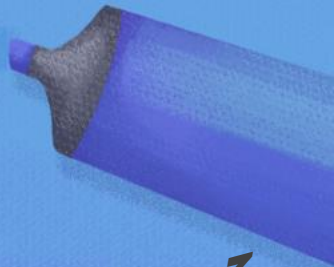

It doesn't speak
at all.

It smells refreshing!

It feels like a small ball.

Let's Learn

Yes! It's a lemon!

When we write them down, it is Descriptive Writing!

A Lemon

It is  yellow and round. It smells refreshing! It feels like a small ball, and it doesn't speak at all. Be careful!
It tastes super sour!

Let's Learn

In descriptive writing, you write about what you see, hear, smell, taste, and touch.

Which one is Descriptive Writing?

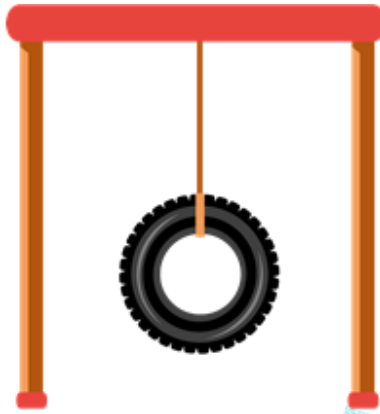

A. My Doll

My Doll Marina looks like a princess!
She smells like a morning garden.
Her hair feels so soft!
But she doesn't speak at all.

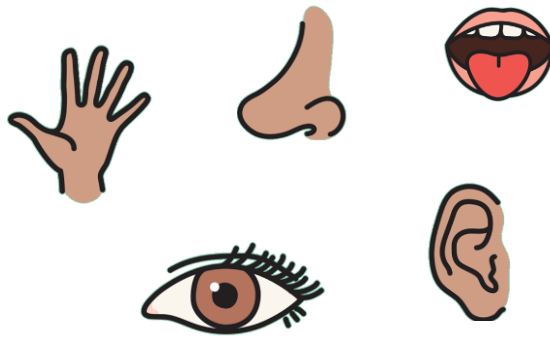

B. Don't Waste Food

We should not waste food. It is important to cherish food and refuse to waste it. We need to show respect to farmers and their hard work.

1. Robin thinks about the topic. (a tire swing!)

2. Robin uses his senses to get ideas.

Let's Learn

3. Robin writes describing words. Any more words?

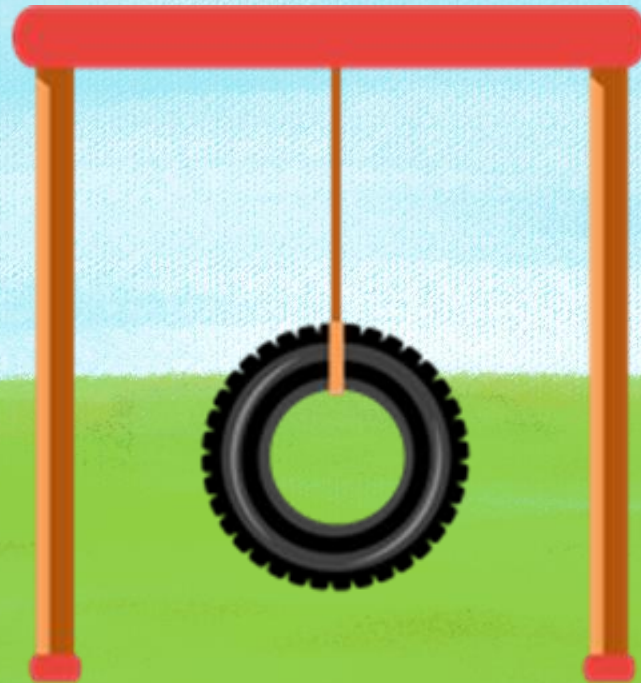

shiny
black smooth

squeaks

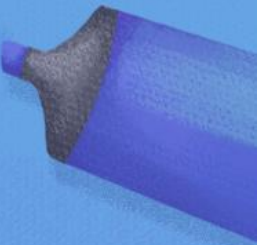

Let's Do

Find something around you.

Use your senses to think of describing words about it.

I want to describe a:

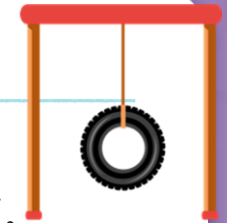

Let's Learn

Robin writes more sentences to form a paragraph.

Read and circle out the describing words!

Our Tiring Swing

We often play on the tire swing.

A shiny chain holds the big black tire .

The tire feels warm and smooth.

The swing squeaks and creaks.

I like cooking with Grandma.

- In descriptive writing, you write about what you see, hear, smell, taste, and touch.
- These steps will help you start descriptive writing:
 1. Think about your topic
 2. Use your senses to get ideas
 3. Write describing words

example

Our Tiring Swing

We often play on the tire swing.

A shiny chain holds the big black tire.

The tire feels warm and smooth.

The swing squeaks and creaks.

I like cooking with Grandma.