List reasons to follow the rule.

Prewrite

In our last lesson, Lily listed three reasons to support her opinion. Now she is going to write.

We should walk in the halls.

My Reasons:

- 1. to be quiet
- 2. to see where we are going
- 3. to stay safe

We should walk in the halls.

Today we'll learn ...

Let's Learn

Lily wrote her first draft.

How did Lily start?

Read it out.

We should walk in the halls it helps us

be quiet. We can see where we are going.

Walking helps everyone stay safe.

Always walk in the halls.

1. Start

Start with your opinion sentence.

"We should..."

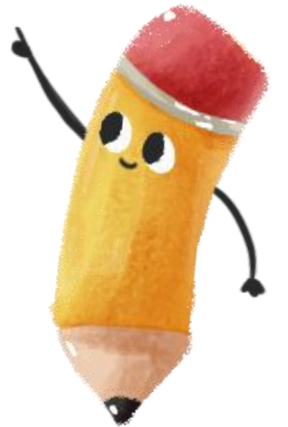

We should walk in the halls it helps us

be quiet. We can see where we are going.

Walking helps everyone stay safe.

Always walk in the halls.

Let's Learn

Lily used her three reasons in the draft.

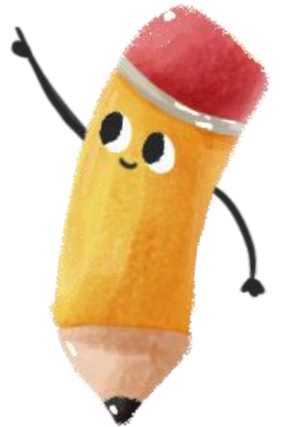

Can you help find them?

We should walk in the halls it helps us
be quiet. We can see where we are going.

Walking helps everyone stay safe.

Always walk in the halls.

2. Write

Write a sentence for each reason.

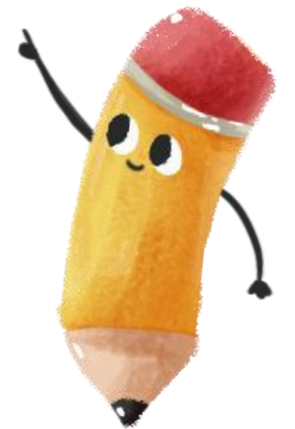

We should walk in the halls ⁽¹⁾ it helps us be quiet. ⁽²⁾ We can see where we are going.

⁽³⁾ Walking helps everyone stay safe.

Always walk in the halls.

Let's Learn

How did Lily end
the paragraph?

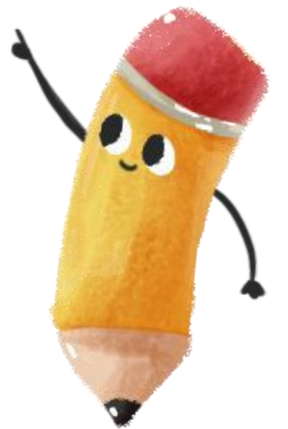

Can you underline and
read it out?

We should walk in the halls it helps us
be quiet. We can see where we are going.

Walking helps everyone stay safe.

Always walk in the halls.

3. Repeat

Repeat the rule in a new way.

Find a new way to repeat:

We should walk in the halls.

Always walk in the halls.

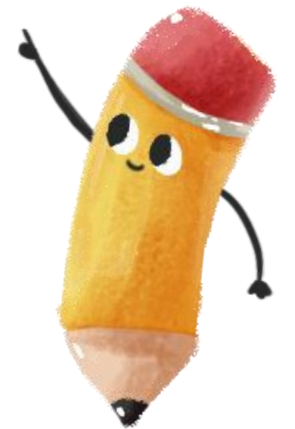

Be sure to walk in the halls.

We should walk in the halls it helps us

be quiet. We can see where we are going.

Walking helps everyone stay safe.

Always walk in the halls.
