The Mouse disturbed the Lion's nap.

The Mouse begged the Lion to let him go and promised he would help him in the future.

The Lion didn't believe that he would need a mouse's help.

One day, he was carelessly falling into a net trap.

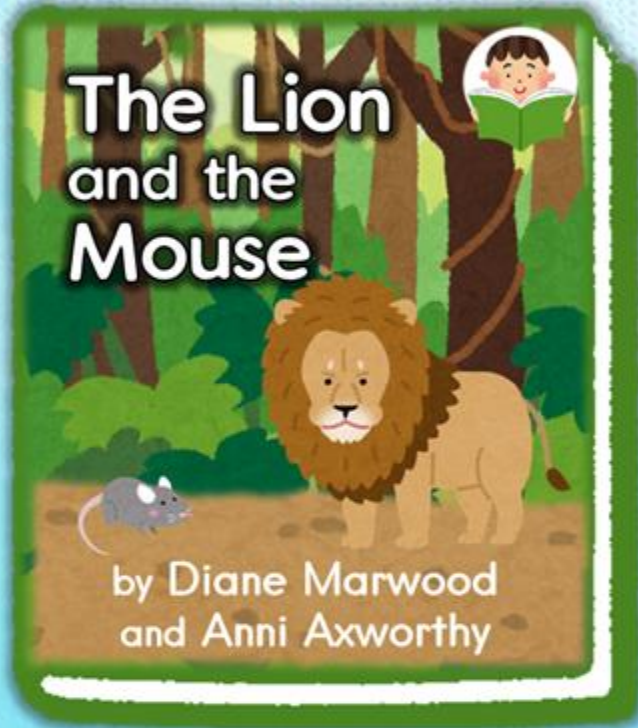

The Mouse came and helped him by breaking the net with his teeth.

The Lion appreciated the Mouse very much.

Let's Learn

Robin wants to write a book review of it.

What's the book title and who is the author? What is the book about?

- The Lion and the Mouse; by Diane Marwood and Anni Axworthy.
- It is about how a mouse saved a lion.

What is your favorite part of the book?

- The Lion thought he would never need a mouse's help, but the mouse saved him at the critical moment.

Why should others read this book?

- They would know that even the smallest can help the strongest.

Help Robin with his essay.
Let's start with the
