

DAILY ENGLISH

A06

She's friendly to all the people in the neighborhood.

A photograph of four children sitting on a sandy beach, viewed from behind, looking out at the ocean during sunset. The children are silhouetted against the bright, golden light of the setting sun. The ocean is visible in the background with some waves breaking. The sky is a mix of orange and yellow. The children are sitting close together, and their hair is slightly blowing in the breeze.

Lead-in

1. Do you have many friends?
2. What kind of friends do you prefer?

Target Language

▼ In this lesson, we will learn:

Grammar Focus

kind to/ friendly to

Daily Expression

She's friendly to all the people in the neighborhood.

Picture Description

▼ Tell what you see in the pictures below.

A

B

Pronunciation and Matching

▼ Read the example sentences.

1. Marie has a lot of friends because she's friendly to everyone she meets.
2. My boss is kind to poor people by giving them donations.

▼ Match the sentences with the corresponding pictures.

Conversation

▼ Listen to the conversation.

Alex: Have you met our new neighbor, Sally?

Ella: Oh, yeah. She's friendly to all the people in the neighborhood.

Alex: You bet! And she's kind to everyone, too.

Ella: Yes, she is. She's throwing a party at her place and she's inviting everyone.

Questions:

- Who is their new neighbor?
- What is their new neighbor like?
- What will they be having at their new neighbor's place?

Grammar Focus

▼ Read the grammar structure.

kind to/ friendly to

Marie has a lot of friends because she's friendly to everyone she meets.

My boss is kind to poor people by giving them donations.

Grammar Check

▼ Match the first part of the sentences in Column A to the second part in Column B.

A

My friends like me because ...

She always welcomes us ...

My mother likes him because ...

She gives gifts to all her friends ...

A person who is friendly to ...

B

... he is kind to our family.

... everyone is liked by all.

... because she is friendly to all.

... I am always kind to them.

... because they are kind to her.

Grammar Check

▼ Complete the sentences using the words provided.

employees

neighbors

animals

students

customers

- 1 She is an animal lover. She is always kind to .
- 2 The English teacher is kind to her .
- 3 Brian is friendly to those living near his house. He is friendly to his .
- 4 Shop owners should be friendly to their .
- 5 Our boss is always kind to all his .

Daily Scene

Complete the mission to give gifts to poor people.
Pick every gift you encounter and do the challenge given. Listen to your teacher for the instruction.

