Smart Kids

Level-Up 1

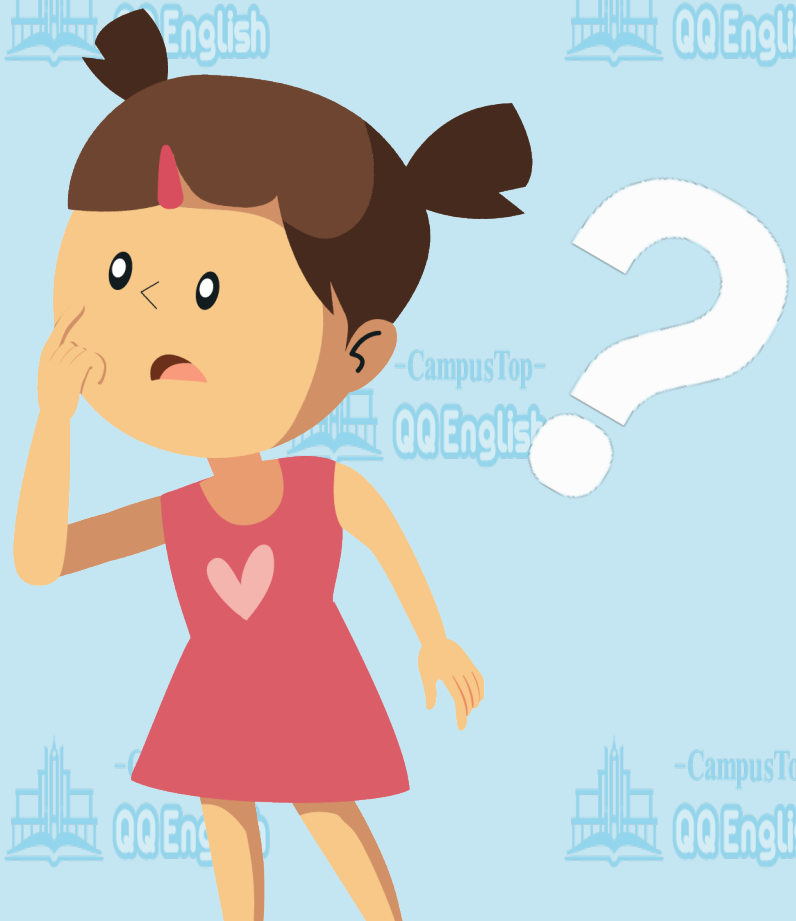
Lesson 16

Wash your hands, please!

Lead-in

Look and guess.

What am I doing?



New Words

Read and learn.

brush

sweep

fold

wash

Practice New Words

Complete and match.

_____ my teeth

_____ my hands

_____ the dress

_____ the floor

Present the Grammar

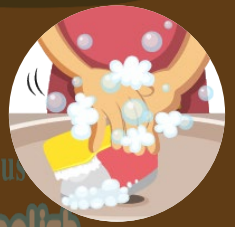
Listen and repeat.

Annie, wash your hands, please!

Annie, fold the green dress, please!

Annie, brush your red shoes, please!

Yes, sure.



-CampusTop- QQ English

Present the Grammar

Imperative Sentence: verb + noun / noun phrase

verb: describe an anction

Example: fold sweep brush wash

noun phrase

Example: the green dress the red shoes your hands

Examples:

Wash your hands.

verb. noun phrase

Brush your red shoes.

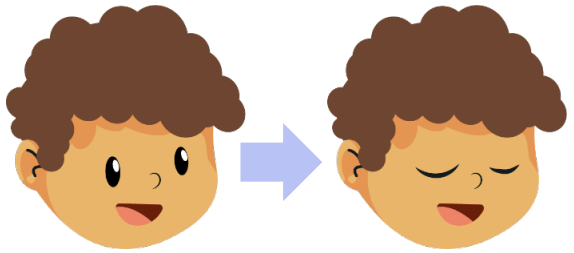
Fold the green dress.

Sweep the floor.

Practice the Grammar

Read and choose.

1



Close your eyes.

Open your eyes.

2

Brush the teeth.

Sweep the floor.

3

Clap your hands.

Raise your hands.

Practice the Grammar

Read and rearrange.

1. fold | blue | your | dress

2. two | apples | green | wash

3. window | the | small | open

Produce the Grammar

Read and do the actions.

1. Stand up, please!
2. Clap your hands, please!
3. Draw a red triangle.
4. Touch your left ear.

Lesson Conclusion

Today, we learned :

Imperative Sentence:

verb + noun phrase

Examples:

Sweep the floor, please!

Wash your hands, please!

Fold the green dress, please!

Brush the red shoes, please!