

/ h / hag hail how hear hit

/ n / nag nail

now near knit

/ h /

/ n /

how
now

hear
near

hit knit

SENTENCES

1. How are you now?
2. Hear her voice like she's near.
3. Nail the box cover before you hail a cab.

/ m / comb

gym
mail
mode met Pam
some Tim

/ n / cone

gin
nail
node
net
pan
sun
tin

/ m /

/ n /

Pam
pan

some sun

Tim
tin

SENTENCES

1. Some people love staying under the sun.
2. Tim threw the tin cans outside.
3. Pam bought a new pan.

/ m /

some ham
rim

/ ŋ / sung hang ring

12

/ m / / ŋ /

some sung
ham
hang rim
ring

1. Some of them have sung at the opera house.
2. Hang the ham in the kitchen.
3. The rim of the ring is rough.

/ n /

gone
wins
su fan
sin ran

/ ŋ /

gong
wings
sung
fang
sing rang

/ n / / ŋ /

fan
fangsin singran
rang

SENTENCES

1. The kids ran after they rang the bell.
2. If she wins, I will give her the angel wings.
3. She has sung under the heat of the sun.

/ n /

pan
tin bent earn fin
win

/ l / pal till belt earl fill will

/ n /

/ l / earn earl

fin
fill

win will

SENTENCES

1. His pal brought a pan.
2. The earl can earn a lot each year.
3. He will win the game.

/ m / aim coma Tim

my Pam
mine may

/ l / ail

cola
till
lie pal
line lay

/ m /

/ l / mine

line

Pam
pal

may lay

SENTENCES

1. Pam is an old pal of mine.
2. You may lay the child in its crib.
3. Tim did not come till today.

/ h / hate hazy height

hand
hit hack

/ l / late lazy

light
land lit lack

/ h /

/ l /

hand
land

hit
lit

hack lack

SENTENCES

1. I hate it when I'm late.
2. His hand hit the land.
3. They lack the ability to hack.

/ r / arrive bury arrow brink brew

grew pray

/ l /

alive
belly aloe blink blue glue play

/ r /

/ l / brew

blue

grew glue

pray
play

SENTENCES

1. Use the blue cup to brew your coffee.
2. Don't bury the hook in your belly.
3. Don't play when you pray.

/ j / yet yolk

yell yarn

/ w / wet woke well warn

/ j /

/ w / yolk

woke

yell
well

yarn
warn

SENTENCES

1. It rained yet he wasn't wet.
2. I heard a yell at the well.
3. Didn't I warn you not to play with yarn?

/ r /

array
rag
raid
rise ray
ring
rye

/ w / away

wag
wade
wise
way wing why

/ r /

/ w / ray

wayrye whyring wing

SENTENCES

1. He'll rise as a wise man.
2. The dogs play with the rag and wag their tails.
3. An array of products have been taken away.