

Starter:

Answer the test below:

1. You found a wallet full of money. Do you...?

- a. hand it to the police?
- b. pocket the money?
- c. if possible call the owner?

2. You win $5 million in a lottery. Do you...?

- a. invest it?
- b. go on a spending spree?
- c. give most of it to charity?

Describe the picture.

Comment on the following statements:

- a. Money can buy companions, but not friends.
- b. Money can buy medicine, but not health.
- c. Money can buy food, but not appetite.
- d. Money can buy amusement, but not happiness.

Vocabulary Exercise

Find the meaning of the words from the given choices.

bribe

budget

donation

investment

- an amount of money available for spending that is based on a plan for how it will be spent
- something valuable (such as money) that is given in order to get someone to do something
- the act of using money to earn more money
- something (such as money, food, clothes, etc.) that you give in order to help a person or organization

Gap Fill Exercise

Complete the sentences using the words learned.

- I offered the children a _____ for finishing their homework.
- She got a good return on her _____.
- Would you like to make a _____?
- He's been trying to live on a _____ of less than $1,500 a month.

Discussions

Answer the following questions.

- What things would you like to spend more/less on?
- Are you currently saving up for a particular thing?
- Is talking about money a taboo subject in your country?
- What's the most expensive thing you have bought recently?

Express Yourself

Answer this hypothetical question. Explain briefly.

Would you rather be rich and stupid, or poor and intelligent?