

The logo for 'Smart Kids' is displayed in a stylized, bubbly font. 'Smart' is in purple and 'Kids' is in a darker purple, with a small heart shape integrated into the letter 'i' in 'Kids'.

Smart
Kids

Unit 6

Health and Disease

Lesson 4

Say It Out (2)

Go to Bed Early

Go to bed early — wake up with joy.

Go to bed late — cross girl of boy.

Go to bed early — ready for play.

Go to bed late — moping all day.

Go to bed early — no pains or ills.

Go to bed late — doctors and pills.

Go to bed early — grow very tall.

Go to bed late — stay very small.

Fill in the blanks

She has a _____.
I think she should _____.

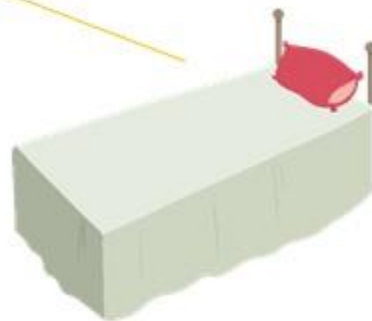

He has a _____.
I think he shouldn't _____.

Review Time

Lesson 4 • Say It Out (2)

Match and say

e.g. He has a headache. He should lie down and rest.

Let's Listen

Lesson 4 • Say It Out (2)

Listen to the dialogue

Annie is ill. Her classmates Sam and Alice come to see her.

Sam: How are you feeling today, Annie?

Annie: I feel better now.

Sam: Here is a get-well card for you.

Alice: Here are some fruits for you.

Annie: Oh, thank you! But I'm worried about my lessons.

Sam: Don't worry. I can help you with your Math.

Alice: I can help you with your English.

Annie: That's really great.

Is there any homework these 2 days?

Sam: Yes, there is some homework. Let me tell you...

Read and learn

Here is/are...for you.

Sam: Here is a get-well card for you.

Alice: Here are some fruits for you.

Alice: Here is a _____.

Annie: _____.

Read and learn

help sb with sth

I can help you with your Math.

I can help you with your English.

_____.

Let's Talk and Learn

Lesson 4 • Say It Out (2)

Read and learn

Annie is ill. Her classmates Sam and Alice come to see her.

Sam: How are you feeling today, Annie?

Annie: I feel better now. (good – better)

Sam: Here is a get-well card for you.

Alice: Here are some fruits for you.

Annie: Oh, thank you! But I'm worried about my lessons.

Sam: Don't worry. I can help you with your Math.

Alice: I can help you with your English.

Annie: That's really great.

Is there any homework these 2 days?

Sam: Yes, there is some homework. Let me tell you...

Learn and practice

some

1. Used in positive sentences

I have some friends. (friends is countable)

I want some water. (water is uncountable)

any

1. Used in negative sentences

There aren't any cookies for you. (cookie is countable)

There isn't any juice. (juice is uncountable)

Practice

I can see some birds in the tree. (change the sentence into its negative form)

_____.

I haven't any free time after the lunch. (change the sentence into its positive form)

_____.

Learn and practice

some

2. Used in the following questions

Would you like some bread? (offer)

Can I have some wine, please? (request)

any

2. Used in all questions

Did you eat any grapes after dinner?

Do you have any friends in America?

Practice

-Is there _____ milk in the fridge?

-Yes, there is _____ milk.

-Would you like _____ noodles?

-No, I don't want _____ noodles.

Have a conclusion

	similarity	difference
some	countable nouns uncountable nouns	positive sentences/questions(offer&request)
any		negative sentences/all questions

Example

There are some pears.

I drank some wine.

There aren't any eggs.

Did you have any water?

I have some money.

Can I have some milk, please?

I didn't receive any gifts on Christmas.

Did you catch any fish?

Fill in the blanks by using “some” or “any”

- 1 There isn't _____ milk in the bottle.
- 2 I can see _____ cars, but I can't see _____ buses.
- 3 He has _____ friends in England.
- 4 Were there _____ trees on the farm?
- 5 Would you like _____ green tea?
- 6 Here are _____ gifts for you.
- 7 -Can I borrow _____ money from you, please?
-Sorry, I don't have _____ money in my wallet.

Complete the dialogue and talk more

Sam and Alice go home. Mom comes in...

Mom: Annie, here is _____(some/any) medicine for you.

Annie: No, I don't want to take _____(some/any) medicine.

Mom: It's good for you, Annie.

Annie: I know, but the medicine is too bitter.

Mom: You can eat _____(some/any) candies after the medicine.

Annie: That's a good idea. And can I also have _____(some/any) ice cream?

Mom: No, Annie. You _____(should) eat it when you have a cold.

Annie: Alright. I hope I can get better tomorrow.

Do a role-play

