

For Advanced Kids Learners

Book 1

Time to Talk

Lesson 12_ Chopsticks vs Cutlery

- Matching

Which eating tools best fit the pictures?

- Read and learn

Chopsticks vs Cutlery

People around the world have different ways to eat food. The chopsticks are mainly used in East Asian countries. In Western countries, they use cutlery.

Western Countries:

USA

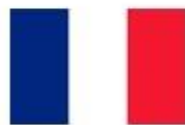

Australia

Canada

UK

France

cutlery

- Read and learn

We already know that chopsticks are very old but the cutlery is even older. The very first cutlery existed about 14,000 years ago. The first knife was made of stone while the spoon was made of shell. Forks came a little later than the knife and spoon. The first forks were made of bones.

stone

shell

bone

- Read and learn

It was said that the chopsticks made of silver were used by rich people to find poison in their food. It would turn black if it touched poison. Some cutlery like the fork and knife had bad stories too because some people thought it was dangerous and could be used for killing.

poison

- Activity

Word Bingo

Listen to your teacher.
Circle the correct word.

used + preposition

used in + place used by + people used for + verb + -ing

Examples

1. Cutlery is used in East Asian Countries.
2. Metal chopsticks are used by rich people.
3. Silver chopsticks are used for finding poison in the food.

Fill in the blanks with in, by, or for.

1. The phone was used _____ Dad.
2. A pencil is used _____ writing and drawing.
3. Coats are used _____ cold places to feel warm.

- Activity

Compare Chopsticks and Cutlery

QUESTIONS

1. Who uses chopsticks?
Who uses cutlery?
2. Which is older?
3. What food can you eat using chopsticks?
What food can you eat using cutlery?
4. Which do you think is easier to use?