1. Personal Pronouns Table

Person	Person Pronoun	Possessive Adjective	Object Pronoun	Possessive Pronoun	Reflexive Pronoun
first singular	I	my	me	mine	myself
second singular	you	your	you	yours	yourself
third singular (male)	he	his	him	his	himself
third singular (female)	she	her	her	hers	herself
third singular (neither)	it	its	it	---	itself
first plural	we	our	us	ours	ourselves
second plural	you	your	you	yours	yourselves
third plural	they	their	them	theirs	themselves

Personal pronouns are used when it is clear who or what is being talked about.

E.g. Mike is my best friend. He is a teacher.

Subject pronouns: we use subject pronouns as the subject of the clause.

Object pronouns: we use the object pronouns in all positions apart from subject, e.g. after the verb, or after a preposition.

Possessive pronouns indicate ownership. (e.g. That car is hers. It is mine.)

If a pronoun is used to indicate to whom an object belongs, it is called a possessive adjective (e.g. that is her car.)
